

Water Engineering in Motion

sales@kgnpillinger.com

tel. 0208 681 0097

ProductDataSheet

Packaged Pumping Station

Below Ground

The KGN Pillinger range of underground packaged pumping stations are designed for raising sewage and surface water in low lying areas for residential and commercial applications and are available on short lead times.

Advantages

- Designed around easy maintenance features
- Supplied packaged for simple installation
- Provides the mould for concrete to form

Design

Multiple sized, GRP chamber comprising high strength glass fibres in a tough, corrosion resistant thermoset polyester matrix and fitted with stainless steel pipework throughout.

Applications

- Housing developments
- Apartment blocks
- Retail parks
- Factories
- Hospitals
- Supermarkets
- Leisure centres
- Light industrial units
- Schools & universities

Features

- 240v or 400v options
- Volt free contacts available
- External mimic control panel
- Individual pump isolating valves
- Individual pump non return valves
- Oracle telemetry system available
- One, two or three pump arrangements
- Option for GRP Kiosk with high quality gel coated finish
- Guide rail system for easy pump removal and maintenance
- 5 tonne rated pedestrian manhole cover (any rating available)

Please contact our sales team for further information on these and the complete range of KGN Pillinger water boosting equipment, pressurisation units and stainless steel fabrication.